Grammar/Key sentences
Countries are nouns which means they are either masculine or feminine. If the country's name is masculine, the form of de to use is du. If it is feminine, then de la needs to be used. Regardless of gender, if the country's name begins with a vowel, then de l'... needs to be used. To say to or in, use au for masculine countries that start with a consonant and en for feminine countries or countries that start with a vowel.
All compass points are masculine, so when saying to the, the word au is used, with the exception of l'ouest and l'est. As these words begin with a vowel, à l'... is needed.
Two forms of the verb être (to be) are used here: est (is) and était (was). The adjective célèbre (famous) stays the same for masculine and feminine jobs.
L'Espagne est un voisin de la France. La France est un voisin du Luxembourg.	Spain is a neighbour of France. France is a neighbour of Luxembourg.
